Total signs LNG HoA with Chugoku Electric

French major Total has signed a binding Heads of Agreement (HoA) with Japanese utility Chugoku Electric for supply of up to 0.4 mtpa of LNG under a 17-year contract, Total said on Friday.

Once finalised, the supply deal will start in three years and it will be the third long-term supply agreement Total has signed with an Asian buyer. LNG sent to Chugoku Electric will be sourced from Total's supply portfolio, the French company said.
