Rosneft and Pertamina eye joint development of Russian fields

State-owned Rosneft has signed memoranda of understanding (MoUs) to jointly develop oil and gas fields in northern Russia with Indonesia's Pertamina.

Pertamina is looking to take a 20% stake in the offshore Northern Tip of Chayvo Field near Sakhalin island in far north-east Russia and acquire a 37.5% interest in the central-north onshore Russkoye field.
