Lebanon widens pool of bidders competing in offshore exploration tender

Lebanon has added eight oil and gas exploration companies to the list of firms now qualified to participate in its long-delayed maiden offshore licensing round.

The new pre-qualified companies include ONGC Videsh of India, which has had its status upgraded to operator having pre-qualified as non-operator in the 2013 round. This brings the total number of pre-qualified operators to 13, among them ExxonMobil, Chevron and Shell.
