Qatar crisis may hit long-term 'productive potential' of Middle East – OIES

The deepening diplomatic crisis between Qatar, several of its Gulf neighbours and a growing list of other countries has so far had a limited impact on oil and gas markets.

But the rift within the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) threatens to amplify regional instabilities in the Middle East, which “may well impact the long-term productive potential of the region”.

These are the conclusions from Oxford Institute of Energy Studies ...
