RETROSPECTIVE: Corrib sale draws line under Shell's controversial Irish saga

Shell's exit from the Irish upstream sector [1] and divestment of its stake in the Corrib gas field draws a line under its involvement in what was a controversial project that faced interminable delays.

To say the Corrib gas field – located 83 km off the north-west coast of Ireland – faced problems during development is something of an understatement.

Marred by fierce local opposition that
