Shell profits from integrated gas surge and upstream turnaround in H1 results

Royal Dutch Shell posted a sharp increase in profits for the first half of 2017 driven by a surge in earnings from its integrated gas business and a turnaround in the upstream segment, as counterparts Statoil and Total also made gains despite the "volatile" price environment.

The Anglo-Dutch major reported income of just over USD 5 billion for H1'17, up by a notable 206% on the USD 1.6 billion secured in the year-ago period. Quarterly income also ticked north to ...
