Oil Search profits surge as PNG government moves to sell stock at a loss

Papua New Guinea-focussed Oil Search reported a whopping 405% boost in half-yearly profits this week, further highlighting questions over the PNG government's motivations for reportedly seeking to sell its shares in the company at a loss.

The Port Moresby-based gas and LNG company said the USD 129 million in net profit after tax for the period to June 2017 reflected ...
