BP adds six LNG carriers to its fleet to help lift Freeport LNG volumes

BP is adding six new "state-of-the-art" LNG carriers to its fleet in 2018-19, with the more fuel-efficient vessels set to help lift LNG volumes from the Freeport LNG project and "other international LNG projects".

The vessels will service the 20-year liquefaction tolling contract for 4.4 mtpa at the Freeport facility in Louisiana, which is currently under construction. BP has signed up to take the...
