Saipem wins USD 925 million contract for Thailand's second LNG terminal

Italian oil and gas contractor Saipem has been awarded a USD 925 million contract to develop Thailand's second LNG import project in the south-east of the country.

The contract for the 9 mtpa Nong Fab terminal was awarded by PTT LNG, a subsidiary of PTT, Thailand's national oil company. It will be developed by Saipem in a joint venture with Thai construction and engineering company CTCL.
