Shell buys into Brazil's evolving gas market

An ultra-upstream gas company has broken the habit of a lifetime and taken a highly prized strategic stake in one of the world's better-placed distribution companies. Royal Dutch/Shell Group's recent acquisition of a minority stake in Brazilian gas distribution company Companhia de Gas de São Paulo (Comgas) could be a prelude to more extensive involvement on the part of the Anglo-Dutch company in Brazil's developing natural gas market.
