INA upgrades reserves in Croatia's Ivana offshore gas field upgraded

INA, the Croatian oil company, has upgraded the gas reserves in its Ivana field to 7.9 Bcm. The field is located some visual_editor0 nautical miles from the Croatian port of Pula, in the northern Adriatic Sea. A total of $187 million has already been invested in the field, which is being developed by INA in co-operation with Italian energy company Eni. Each company has the right to half of the reserves produced by the field.
