PDVSA and Enarsa sign agreement for Venezuelan LNG project

Venezuela's state-owned oil and gas company, PDVSA signed a joint venture agreement with Argentina's Enarsa to build and operate the Gran Mariscal de Ayacucho liquefaction facility to be located in the Venezuelan city of Guiria. A pipeline will also be constructed from the planned terminal to supply gas from Block 2 of the offshore Deltana platform of which Chevron has a 60% stake.
