GMT Interview: “We need to be more active in advocating gas as a clean fuel and as the fuel of choice” - Torstein Indreboe, the secretary general of the International Gas Union

As the oil and gas majors prepare for a regulatory shake-up in the management of their upstream drilling activities following the BP oil spill disaster, Torstein Indreboe, the secretary general of the International Gas Union (IGU), spoke with Gas Matters Today on why natural gas should now play an increasingly important role in meeting the clean energy debate.
