RWE in talks to expand its LNG supply to the Middle East

Germany's RWE is in talks to boost its LNG supply to the Middle East, David Fuller, global head of LNG trading for RWE Supply and Trading told the CWC LNG Summit in Barcelona. RWE has a 50% interest in LNG shipper and terminal developer Excelerate Energy, which already supplies LNG to Kuwait Petroleum Corp (KPC) and hopes to expand its market to other gas-hungry countries in the Gulf.
