BP sees healthy growth in gas demand to 2030 in its Energy Outlook 2030

Both Bob Dudley, BP Group chief executive, and Christof Ruehl, BP’s chief economist, speaking at the launch of BP’s Energy Outlook visual_editor030 today in London, emphasized the crucial impact of population growth and of the emerging economies, particularly China and India on the future demand for world energy. Ruehl said: Of all the things spoken of [today] population growth is probably the most reliable.
