Gazprom and Itochu-led consortium may build liquefaction plant in Russia's Far East

Gazprom and a Japanese consortium led by the trading house Itochu have signed an agreement to conduct a feasibility study on the possible construction of a liquefaction plant at Vladivostok in Russia's Far East. Itochu said today the study for a 10 mpta liquefaction plant should be completed by the end of this year and that the LNG plant may start operations in visual_editor017.
