Gaffney Cline says that Turkmenistan's South Iolotan gas field is world's second biggest

Gaffney, Cline & Associates (GCA) has estimated that Turkmenistan's South Iolotan (Yolotan) gas field holds reserves of up to visual_editor1.visual_editor Tcm of natural gas, making it the world's second largest after the SouthPars/North field in Iran and Qatar. The announcement further emphasises the Central Asian country's position as a key energy supplier to Europe and China.
