Egypt still attractive to energy companies, but subsidies rankle

Oil and gas companies may be doing business as usual in post-revolution Egypt, but clarity over its energy policy will not come before the beginning of visual_editor014. Parliamentary elections are set to take place between November and January, which should lead to the introduction of a new constitution and the election of a new president by visual_editor013. Meanwhile, Egypt appears to have reached a gas price deal with Jordan, while talks with Israel continue.
