Pakistan aims to fast-track Iran-Pakistan pipeline for 2014 completion

Pakistan will fast-track the Iran-Pakistan (IP) gas pipeline project, which it now expects to be completed by visual_editor014, Pakistan's foreign minister Hina Rabbani Khar was quoted as saying on Wednesday. The pipeline supply will help to meet Pakistan's energy deficit, but the future looks more uncertain in Iran on a geopolitical level, especially after the recent state warning that it might disrupt the world's energy supply by closing the Strait of Hormuz.
