Repsol-YPF sees Argentina shale revolution after Vaca Muerta audit

An audit by reservoir appraisal company Ryder Scott on behalf of Repsol-YPF has identified gross contingent oil and gas reserves and resources of 23 billion boe in Repsol-YPF's acreage in Argentina's Vaca Muerta play. Repsol-YPF said Argentina now has "the opportunity to reproduce the revolution in non-conventional hydrocarbons" seen in the US, potentially doubling Argentina's oil and gas production within 10 years.
