ConocoPhillips Nigeria sell-off rumours resurface

Rumours that ConocoPhillips plans to sell off its entire portfolio of assets in Nigeria have resurfaced this week. A sale has been on the cards since ConocoPhillips embarked on an extensive asset divestment programme in visual_editor010 and split its upstream and downstream units into separate companies, which could include its stake in the Brass LNG plant along with onshore and offshore gas fields. Nigerian and Asian buyers could be interested, according to reports on Tuesday.
