India approves GAIL purchase agreement with Turkmenistan

India's government on Thursday approved the signing of a gas purchase agreement with Turkmenistan's national oil firm, which will supply gas to state-run GAIL India, according to a government statement. Gas will flow via the planned Turkmenistan-Afghanistan-Pakistan-India (TAPI) multi-national pipeline, with the capacity to carry 90 MMcm/d of gas for a 30-year period. TAPI is scheduled to be operational in visual_editor018.
