“Everything to play for” in Southern Corridor – BP

BP’s downstream CEO Ian Conn said last week that there is still “everything to play for” as the remaining Southern Corridor pipeline proposals jostle to be selected by the BP-led Shah Deniz consortium. The Trans-Adriatic Pipeline, Nabucco West and BP’s own SEEP proposal remain in the running to transport Caspian gas to Europe. “All of these options have strategic value and offer the necessary scope for scalability. There is no pre-determined winner, the competition is fully open,” Conn said.
