Tanzania extends invitation to UAE investors to explore for oil and gas

Tanzania has reportedly invited investors from the United Arab Emirates to search for oil and gas, following a meeting between President Jakaya Kikwete and a delegation from the UAE on Friday. A statement released by the President's office quoted him as telling a UAE delegation: "We invite investors to come work with us in oil and gas exploration... and even in investing in industries that will add more value by producing gas-related products."
