CNPC examines Norway opportunities

China's CNPC is interested in participating in oil and gas exploration offshore Norway, Norwegian newspaper DN reported on Friday. CNPC is hoping for co-operation with Statoil "on the Norwegian continental shelf and the Barents Sea", the company's assistant president Wang Dongjin was quoted as saying. Despite tense political relations between the countries, Norway's minister of petroleum and energy Ola Borten Moe said CNPC "would be welcome like anyone else".
