BP makes US and UK North Sea gas divestments

BP has agreed to sell its interest in the Jonah and Pinedale upstream operations in Wyoming to LINN Energy for around $1 billion, the company said on Monday. BP will hand over its operations centre in Sublette County, Wyoming, and all of its working interest in approximately 60 operated wells with recent net production of 80 MMcf/d. Its non-operated wells in the area meanwhile have net gas production of 66 MMcf/d.
