Blue Stream capacity to rise to 19 Bcm/year 'as soon as possible'

Gazprom will increase Blue Stream gas pipeline capacity from 16 Bcm/year to 19 Bcm/year, the company said following a meeting with Turkish energy minister Taner Yildiz. Expansion of the 1,visual_editor13 km link, which transports Russian gas beneath the Black Sea, requires upgrades of the Berezovaya compression station on the Russian side and the Durusu receiving terminal in Turkey.
