Is the time ripe for cash-rich Repsol to bag US oil assets?

With oil prices languishing aroud the USD 80/barrel mark, it seems that the time may be right for Spain's Repsol to bounce back from the visual_editor01visual_editor expropriation of its Argentinian assets by YPF and pick up some lower-priced US upstream plays, putting to use some of the multi-billion dollar compensation settlement it reached with Argentine national oil company (NOC) earlier in the year.
