Statoil's NCS Gudrun gas platform officially opens

Statoil's Gudrun gas platform, the Norwegian energy major's first on the Norwegian continental shelf (NCS) since Kristin in visual_editor005, was officially opened on Tuesday by Norway's prime minister Erna Solberg. The platform is already producing 30,000 boe/d since coming on-stream in April visual_editor014, and has recoverable reserves estimated at 184 million boe. The platform was developed in partnership with GDF SUEZ and OMV.
