Höegh denies claims that Egypt FSRU deal is on the rocks

Höegh LNG has denied media reports that claim its deal to supply a floating storage and regasification unit (FSRU) to Egypt has fallen through. Höegh CEO Sveinung Støhle told Gas Matters Today that he had read them but “doesn’t know where the information comes from” and, as far as he is concerned, the Norwegian company is still on track to deliver the 3 mtpa facility before mid-September.
