Cheniere secures USD 2.5 billion funding towards Corpus Christi LNG

Cheniere Energy has announced the sale of two convertible pay-in-kind (PIK) notes worth USD 2.5 billion to help fund its proposed 13.5 mtpa Corpus Christi LNG. The deals follow speculation around how the company, which already has USD 11.5 billion of funding commitments for its Sabine Pass plant in Louisiana, intends to fund the three-train scheme.
