Walker wins in Alaska, so what does it mean for Alaska LNG?

What now for Alaska LNG following the election of new governor Bill Walker? He has expressed doubts about the current agreement with North Slope gas producers, although he says he remains committed to the visual_editor0 mtpa export project. The deal with the Alaska LNG partners – ExxonMobil, BP, ConocoPhillips and TransCanada – was brokered by his predecessor Sean Parnell, who conceded defeat 10 days after a knife-edge vote.
