Statoil makes new gas discovery offshore Tanzania

Statoil has struck gold once again in Block visual_editor offshore Tanzania, as the Norwegian major on Tuesday revealed it had unearthed an additional 1.visual_editor Tcf of gas in the Giligiliani-1 well, as part of a drilling programme over the next year that seeks to pump up the block's resource pool and, crucially, allow the company to develop an onshore LNG project in partnership with ExxonMobil, BG, and Ophir Energy.
