Attack on LNG tanker off Yemen highlights dangers at sea

The pirate attack off the coast of Yemen on an LNG carrier en route from Qatar to Egypt hints at a new set of potential dangers for the LNG industry, sources told Gas Matters Today.

Shipowner Teekay confirmed that its 137,814 cm, 2004-built Galicia Spirit was involved in a “security-related incident” on October 25 when travelling near the Bab el Mandeb strait between Yemen and Eritrea.
