Australia's Origin to supply 0.3 mpta to China's ENN LNG

Australia's Origin Energy has agreed to deliver 280,000 tonnes/year of LNG to China's ENN LNG Trading Company for five years. The involved volume is nearly 45% lower than the amount outlined in a related non-binding deal signed earlier this year.

Origin can supply ENN with LNG from its own portfolio or third-party purchases. Origin and ENN can also opt to extend the agreement by five years.
