Norway exports record volume to Europe in 2016

Norway has set a new record for deliveries to Europe, with the Scandinavian country piping 108.56 Bcm to buyers across the continent last year, pipeline operator Gassco said this week.

“Deliveries show that European demand for Norwegian gas is higher than ever,” said Gassco CEO Frode Leversund. “It’s also gratifying that we’ve been able to set a new record in a year characterised by extensive maintenance work.”
