SPE CONFERENCE: UK 'could become global leader in O&G decommissioning'

The ramp-up of North Sea decommissioning could make the UK an expert in a sector poised to boom to GBP 35 billion global expenditure over the next decade.

The “size of the prize” was highlighted by Roger Esson, CEO of Decom North Sea, the membership organisation for the oil and gas late life and decommissioning sector.

Esson told delegates at the Society of Petroleum Engineers' conference in central London this week that ...
