Repsol-Sinopec saves Montrose facilities with first gas from new North Sea field

Repsol Sinopec Resources UK has delivered first gas from the Cayley field, the third and final new discovery in the redeveloped Montrose Area in the UK's Central North Sea.

Gross incremental production from Cayley, combined with the Godwin and Shaw fields that were brought onstream in May, is expected to peak at 40,000 boe/d, the joint venture company said on Wednesday
