African Petroleum asserts rights to Gambian blocks amid disputed tender claims

Oslo-listed African Petroleum has hit back at reports claiming its two offshore Gambian oil blocks are to be re-tendered, stating the company is “yet to receive any formal feedback from Gambian authorities regarding the status of its A1 and A4 licences”.

African Petroleum issued a statement regarding the status of its Gambian assets this week, after reports emerged citing a Gambian presidential spokesperson stating the company’s licences for the two blocks had ...
