EDF seeking contractual clarity as it ponders sale of Dunkirk LNG terminal stake

EDF is looking at potentially selling the entirety of its majority stake in the recently commissioned Dunkirk LNG terminal in a bid to raise much-needed funds to help strengthen its balance sheet.

Market sources said the French state-backed utility is hoping to raise around EUR 1 billion (USD 1.2 billion) by offloading up to its 65% share in the regasification facility, but a contractual wrinkle could ...
