Wood Group wins FEED for 'world's first offshore platform-based' LNG plant

Energy services company Wood Group has won a USD 12 million front-end engineering design (FEED) contract for the "world's first offshore platform-based" LNG plant to be developed in the US Gulf of Mexico.

Chinese drilling equipment manufacturer Honghua Group awarded Wood Group the contract to finalise the design of the first-of-its-kind LNG plant, to be located in the...
