YPF places Argentine shale at heart of five-year USD 30 billion investment drive

Argentina's highly prospective Vaca Muerta shale play continues to attract strong investor interest. State-backed YPF has unveiled a nationwide five-year USD 30 billion investment plan with a strong emphasis on unconventional oil and gas, in the same week that ExxonMobil was granted a 35-year production concession for a pilot project in Neuquen province.

YPF's investment strategy aims to ...
