OGA to ‘cajole’ UK North Sea industry to help hit net zero, as PM moots sector bailout

The Oil and Gas Authority (OGA), the UK government’s hydrocarbons quango whose core objective is to maximise the economic recovery of UK upstream resources, intends to coerce industry players to assist London in achieving its ‘net zero’ climate emissions ambition by 2050 “as far as is reasonable in the circumstances”.

The OGA yesterday said efforts to reduce emissions would be vital in ...
