US LNG sellers seek flexible fix to 'impossible' US-China trade rift, as Trump blanks Xi

US LNG lobbyists have called on US president Donald Trump to allow new long-term sales and purchase agreements (SPAs) signed with Chinese buyers today to count towards Beijing's 2020 trade obligations under phase one of the US-China trade pact, even if deliveries don't happen for years to come. But the ink had barely dried on their letter to the White House when Trump said ...
