Eni hails Bashrush test flows as Egypt dials down Israeli pipeline gas imports

Eni has delivered up to 32 MMcf/d of gas in restricted test conditions at its Bashrush discovery well in the North El Hammad Block. The Italian major said commercial production would be fast-tracked to produce up to 100 MMcf/d of gas and 800 barrels/d of condensate, adding to the country's brimming supplies of gas that – alongside soft domestic demand and curtailed LNG exports – have prompted Cairo to ...
